

Domestic Violence is Not Tradition

The goal of the Puyallup Tribal Community Domestic Violence Advocacy Program (CDVAP) is to meet the needs of Native People by assisting victims of domestic violence.

The CDVAP serves anyone in need of assistance in ending the violence in their lives.

Please read the following questions and check the box with your answer. You can always choose to change your answer if you choose to change your mind:

Do you want a staff member from the CDVAP to assist you in filling out your Petition for protection order?

Yes No

Do you want a staff member from the CDVAP to come to Court right now to provide you assistance?

Yes No

Do you want a staff member from CDVAP to contact you; if so, please provide your contact information on the next page, and this information will remain confidential?

Yes No

Do you want a staff member from CDVAP to appear at your hearing?

Yes No

Respect – Honor – Love – Tradition - Healing

Protect Future Generations

CONTACT INFORMATION

Please provide your contact information if you want a staff member of CDVAP to contact you. The CDVAP and the Court will keep your contact information confidential.

Name(s)

Address

Phone

Respect – Honor – Love – Tradition - Healing

