PETITIONER'S ADOPTION GUIDE

This guide is for informational purposes only and the accuracy of this information is not guaranteed. This information is not legal advice and is not a substitute for legal advice. Court Clerks cannot give you legal advice.

Adoption creates a legal, parent-child relationship that gives the child a permanent home. Under Puyallup Tribal law, all adoptions are "open adoptions" unless there is a "showing of good cause or best interest of the child." P.T.C. § 7.04.1030. An open adoption allows the child to know, and potentially maintain a relationship with, his or her biological parents.

1. Who can file a petition for adoption?

The person who files the petition to adopt a child is called the "petitioner." The petitioner is anyone who wants to adopt the child. If the petitioners are a married couple, the petition must be submitted jointly by both spouses unless one spouse is the biological parent of the child. If one spouse is the biological parent, only the non-biological parent must submit the petition.

2. Do I need to file separate petitions if I am trying to adopt more than one child?

Maybe. If all of the children have the same mother and father, then you can file one petition and use the supplemental petition forms. A separate petition is required for each child who has one or more different parents.

3. How do I file a petition for adoption?

STEP 1: Read this guide carefully

Read this guide, and the petition, carefully in its entirety before completing the petition.

STEP 2: Gather Documentation/Information

Locate any documents with dates and details that will help you complete the petition for adoption. Personal information about the child including legal custody information and the child's assets are required. You will also need specific information regarding the child's parents.

STEP 3: Complete the Petition

It is important to complete the petition with as much detail as possible so the judge has enough information to conduct a preliminary hearing. Do not leave any sections blank unless directed to do so. If you do not know the answer to a question, you must make efforts to find the answer. If you have tried to find the information and still do not know, you must state in the petition that the information is unknown and explain why it is unknown. Accurately providing all the requested information will help prevent unnecessary delays in the process.

If, for genuine safety reasons, you are requesting your address to be confidential, then you must make this request to the Court while also providing your mailing address to the Court for service purposes. It is recommended that you file a Statement of Address form with this request and also leave your address blank on the petition to assist in ensuring that your address remains confidential.

STEP 3.1: Complete the supplemental petition form

Only use the supplemental petition form if you are filing one petition for siblings who have the same mother and father. The petition allows you to provide information for one child and you must use the supplemental petition form to provide information about each additional child. Once complete, attach the supplemental petition form to your petition for filing. These forms can be obtained from the Court Clerk.

STEP 4: Complete the Service Form

It is important to complete the personal service form included in this packet so the Court can locate and serve the parent(s) if necessary. The case might not be able to move forward until the parent(s) are given copies of these documents. Providing as much information as accurately as possible will prevent delays in this process.

STEP 5: File the Petition

To file the complaint/petition with the Court, submit the complaint/petition, any supplemental documents, and pay the filing fee to the Court, located at 1451 East 31st St. Tacoma, WA 98404, during business hours (Monday through Friday 8:00 a.m. – 5:00 p.m., closed for holidays).

Step 5.1: Submit to the Court Clerk

- Completed & signed petition
- Completed & signed personal service form
- Statement of Address
- Any supplemental documents

Step 5.2: Pay the filing fee to the Court Clerk

- Pay the $20 filing fee or
- File a motion to request a fee waiver (if applicable)

Step 5.3: Receive from the Court Clerk

- Your receipt or a copy of the order waiving filing fees
- A file-stamped copy of your filings

4. What happens after I file the petition?

After a petition is filed, the Court will set a hearing date. If the adoption petition is filed at the same time as a petition to terminate parental rights, Petitioner may receive only one hearing date. Once the hearing is set, the Court Clerk will provide Petitioner with a notice and summons to come to Court for a hearing as well as a copy of the petition.

The Court will also request that the Puyallup Tribal Children's Services prepare a Home Study and Report on the minor child(ren). This report will help inform the judge of the situation and is required by Puyallup law.

5. What happens at the preliminary hearing?

You must show up at the hearing. The hearing is private and closed, so only those individuals with a legitimate interest in being at the hearing will be present. The judge will hear from the parties and based on the circumstances will make a decision on how to proceed. If a petition to terminate parental rights is filed with the adoption petition, both petitions may be considered at this preliminary hearing.

6. What happens after the hearing?

What happens after the hearing depends on what the judge orders. Therefore, it is important to read any order issued by the judge and understand its contents because it will outline the next step in the process.

7. What happens if the adoption is granted?

Adoptions are not final until 6 months after an adoption decree (court order) is signed by the judge. After 6 months, the adoption is final and Puyallup law requires that an official copy of the final adoption decree be given to the Puyallup Tribe of Indians Enrollment Department, the Bureau of Indian Affairs, and the Bureau of Vital Statistics for Washington State.

Once the adoption decree is signed by the judge, the adoptive parent(s) will have 3 months to fill out a Washington State Application for Adoption Registration form and submit the form and the fee(s) to the Court. Washington charges a $15 fee to register the adoption, and $20 to obtain a birth certificate. The Court Clerk will forward this information to the Bureau of Vital Statistics for Washington State.
